Reflections on the Sunday Readings: 6th Sunday of Easter

You may recall the slogan that accompanies the appeal for donations to the blood bank: “Give the gift of life.” that same theme is also associated with appeals for organ donations and other kinds of support for life-saving medical interventions. The emotional attraction of this call is undeniable and hard to resist. But the stark reality is that the life that is offered is transitory and finite. In other words, it is not so much about giving life as about staving off death. Jesus, on the other hand, makes an offer that is even harder to resist. He offers the gift of eternal life, life that is assured because it is given not by one human to another but by the source of all life, God the Creator, to all who accept it. The assurance of this gift is to be found in the very person of Jesus, whose life is shared with us.

The words of Jesus that we read today are deeply consoling: “Because I live, you also will live.” It is not just that Jesus lives, but that he lives in us. Furthermore, he lives in the Father. Therefore, we too live in the Father. In exchange for this extraordinary gift, the Lord asks of us only one thing: “Love one another as I have loved you.”

Spring is Here!!

Turning our thoughts to plants, it's time to think about beautifying our church grounds once again! Since it worked so well last year, we'll put it out there again. If you would like to "adopt" a planter to two and fill it with flowers and plants, and take care of them through the season, that would be wonderful! They all looked so beautiful last year, and was great to see so many different ideas for decorating them!

On May 24th there will be an Ushers and Lectors Meeting at 7:00pm. Ushers will meet in the Multipurpose Room, and Lectors in the church. If anyone is interested in becoming a part of either of these ministries, please join us! New people are more than welcome!
