Reflections on the Sunday readings: 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As humans, our gaze only extends as far as the material world around us. Our senses can only inform us about the immediate and sensory surroundings. As a result, we formulate certain conclusions about the nature of existence.

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds his listeners that the perspective of God is immensely greater than what the human senses can take in. God sees into the deep crevices of space and through the eons of time. God's comprehension is infinitely unfathomable for human minds.

It can be easy to feel like our immediate concerns are of the utmost importance, but Christ redirects our attentions to concerns that - while beyond our current gaze - are of even greater significance; the moral jeopardy our souls are in. When Christ states "fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell," he does so because the peril of this danger is not evident to us yet, but we need to heed it.

Yet Jesus' message has a positive side to it. While there is evil lurking that can ravage our souls, there is also a kingdom that awaits us in God's reality. Those who call on the name of Jesus Christ in this life will be acknowledged by Jesus in the reality to come, a reality far greater and more permanent than this fleeting plane of existence.

Hospital and homevisiting by Father Michel

Just a reminder that Father Michel is always more than happy to visit the sick in hospital or in the home. But because of privacy issues, he will not simply show up. He needs to be invited by a family member, as not everyone wants the visit. So please, if you or a loved one would like a visit from Father Michel, please call the parish during office hours, or call Father directly to set up a visit. God bless.

Please be advised - Our Catechism Coordinator is Barb Sutherland. Her email address is [st.viators catechism@gmail.com](mailto:st.viators catechism@gmail.com). Barb will oversee catechism classes for all grades with the exception of 1st Communion and Confirmation.

This is the first major feature length drama on the life of St. Anthony of Padua, the beloved miracle worker and one of the most popular saints in Christian history. Made in Italy with top-notch acting talent, and superb cinematography, this is an outstanding film on the amazing life of St. Anthony. It presents Anthony as a dynamic and appealing person who sacrificed wealth, popularity, and family for the Kingdom of God.

Born into a Portuguese noble family in 1195, Anthony defied his father's wishes that he become a knight and, instead, followed the call of God to become a monk, eventually joining the Franciscans as a follower of St. Francis of Assisi. Anthony became renowned for his powerful preaching and his miracles that won countless souls to Christ. The film follows his travels through Italy, his mission to Morocco, and his meeting with St. Francis. It beautifully portrays the power of his preaching, the holiness of his life, his love for the poor and oppressed, and the wonders of his miracles. Actor Daniele Liotti gives a truly memorable inspiring and performance as St. Anthony."

Were you as amazed as I was when you heard Roe v. Wade was overturned? This is huge. A lot of people are upset about that, and they're pretty open about it. But a lot of other people are hurting because of abortion, and they're silently searching for healing. Abortion causes trauma, even though you rarely hear that talked about. Countless women who've had an abortion deeply regret it. And they need our help. So even if you don't personally know someone who's had an abortion, what can we do to foster hope and healing around this sensitive topic? That's what we're talking about today.
